

Sowers Church

Norman, Oklahoma

Job Title: Worship Director

Hours: Full-Time (40-45 church-related hours per week)

One Sentence Job Description: As a member of our church-planting staff team, you would oversee and execute the worship, tech, volunteer teams, and general gathering environments of Sowers Church with excellence and with a pastoral heart.

Direct Supervisor: Cody Carroll & Jesse Chaney, church planters

Compensation: Based on experience

Top 10 Responsibilities

1. Grow as a loving disciple of Jesus in all areas of life
 2. Be a pacesetter in cultivating and communicating the vision of Sowers Church
 3. Collaborate with the staff team to shape and promote the worship culture of Sowers Church
 4. Lead our worship gatherings on Sundays and at Salt Company with visible passion, theological clarity, and technical excellence
 5. Create and lead the worship and production set-up teams for effective prep and execution
 6. Identify, disciple, and raise-up existing and emerging musicians & worship leaders
 7. Oversee and manage all technical aspects of worship gatherings, including understanding live sound engineering principles and training tech volunteers
 8. Personally raise a portion of their salary in financial support as Sowers Church establishes itself
 9. Work independently and proactively, handling behind-the-scenes projects essential for Sowers Church gatherings, for both Sunday mornings and college nights (Salt Company)
 10. Engage in creative projects as time and giftedness allow
-

Requirements

1. A clear call to vocational ministry and worship leadership that others have affirmed
2. Bachelor's degree
3. Some level of experience in leading worship in a church/ministry context
4. Bonus points if: you love church planting and are fun :)

